Abruzzo is home to a collection of charming towns and cities, each with its own unique character and attractions. Explore the medieval streets of L'Aquila, the regional capital, or wander through the picturesque alleys of Sulmona, known for its production of confetti. Visit the coastal town of Pescara for its vibrant nightlife and sandy beaches, or head to Teramo to discover its ancient Roman ruins.

L'Aquila

The capital of Abruzzo, L'Aquila is a historic city perched high in the Apennine Mountains. Explore its medieval streets, visit the impressive Basilica di San Bernardino, and admire the panoramic views from the Forte Spagnolo.

Sulmona

Known for its production of confetti, Sulmona is a charming town located in the heart of Abruzzo. Visit the Confetti Museum, explore the 14th-century Palazzo Annunziata, and enjoy the lively atmosphere in Piazza Garibaldi.

Pescara

A vibrant coastal city, Pescara is known for its beautiful beaches, lively nightlife, and delicious seafood. Take a stroll along the Lungomare, visit the Museo delle Genti d'Abruzzo, and enjoy the energetic atmosphere of Corso Umberto I.

Teramo

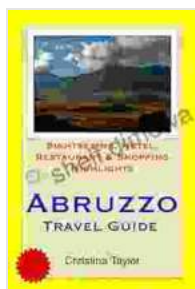

Discover the ancient history of Abruzzo in Teramo, a city rich in Roman ruins. Visit the Roman Amphitheatre, explore the Museo Civico, and admire the medieval architecture in the historic center.

Abruzzo boasts a stunning coastline along the Adriatic Sea, offering pristine beaches, dramatic cliffs, and picturesque fishing villages. Relax on the golden sands of Spiaggia d'Oro in Giulianova, go for a swim in the crystal-clear waters of Punta Penna, or enjoy a boat trip to the Tremiti Islands.

Spiaggia d'Oro

One of the most popular beaches in Abruzzo, Spiaggia d'Oro is known for its golden sands and gentle waves. Located in Giulianova, this beach offers a variety of amenities, including sun loungers, umbrellas, and water sports equipment.
