In 2019, our family of four embarked on a six-week adventure to Sri Lanka. We had always dreamed of visiting this beautiful island nation, and we were eager to experience its rich culture, stunning scenery, and delicious food.

Our journey began in the bustling capital city of Colombo. We spent a few days exploring the city's colonial architecture, visiting its museums, and sampling its street food. From Colombo, we headed north to the ancient city of Anuradhapura. Here, we marveled at the ruins of ancient temples and palaces, and we learned about the country's fascinating history.

From Anuradhapura, we traveled to the hill country of Sri Lanka. We hiked through lush tea plantations, visited waterfalls, and enjoyed the stunning views. We also spent some time in the city of Kandy, where we visited the Temple of the Tooth Relic, one of the most sacred Buddhist sites in the world.

After the hill country, we headed to the east coast of Sri Lanka. We spent some time relaxing on the beaches, and we visited the ancient ruins of Polonnaruwa. We also took a boat trip to Kumana National Park, where we saw elephants, crocodiles, and a variety of other wildlife.

Our final stop in Sri Lanka was the southern coast. We visited the city of Galle, with its historic Dutch fort, and we spent some time on the beaches of Unawatuna. We also took a day trip to Yala National Park, where we saw leopards, elephants, and other animals.

Our six weeks in Sri Lanka were an unforgettable experience. We saw some of the most beautiful scenery in the world, we learned about the country's fascinating history and culture, and we made some wonderful memories. We highly recommend Sri Lanka to anyone looking for an adventure.
