In the sunburnt, unforgiving landscape of the Australian outback, a pioneering family struggles to build a life against all odds. To Love Sunburnt Country is an epic historical saga that spans three generations, telling the story of a nation's birth through the eyes of its people.

The story begins in the late 19th century, as young Matilda Johnson leaves her comfortable life in England to join her husband in the Australian outback. She quickly learns the harsh realities of life on the frontier, where drought, floods, and disease are constant threats. But she is determined to make a home for her family and help build a new nation.

Over the years, Matilda and her descendants witness the birth of the Australian federation, the horrors of World War I, and the Great Depression. They endure hardships and celebrate triumphs, always bound together by their love for the sunburnt country they now call home.

To Love Sunburnt Country is a sweeping, unforgettable saga that brings to life the history of Australia through the lives of its people. It is a story of courage, resilience, and the indomitable spirit of a nation.
