A Journey Through Time and Extravagance

Built in 1992, The Palace of the Lost City was inspired by the legendary King Solomon's Mines, a tale of adventure and discovery. The palace's design evokes the spirit of a bygone era, capturing the essence of ancient African kingdoms and blending it with modern luxury.

As you approach the palace, you are greeted by its towering facade adorned with intricate carvings and shimmering gold accents. The grand entrance leads you into a world of opulence, where marble floors gleam and chandeliers cast a warm glow upon the lavish interior.

Unveiling the Palace's Culinary Delights

The Palace of the Lost City offers a tantalizing culinary journey, showcasing the diverse flavors of African and international cuisine.

Relish in the finest cuts of meat at the renowned Crystal Court, where the sizzling aroma of grilled dishes fills the air. Indulge in authentic African delicacies at Boma – Place of Eating, where traditional flavors dance on your palate. For a memorable evening of fine dining, the elegant Plume Restaurant awaits, tantalizing your taste buds with innovative dishes and an exquisite wine selection.

A Haven of Relaxation and Recreation

Beyond its culinary delights, The Palace of the Lost City offers a sanctuary for rest, rejuvenation, and endless entertainment.

Unwind in the tranquil embrace of the Palace Spa, where skilled therapists revive your senses with rejuvenating treatments. Take a dip in the sparkling turquoise waters of the heated outdoor pools, surrounded by lush gardens and exotic vegetation. For those seeking adventure, the adjacent Lost City Golf Course challenges you with its championship-grade greens. In the evenings, excitement comes alive at the Sun City Casino, where you can try your luck at the tables or enjoy live entertainment.

A Sanctuary for Art and Culture

The Palace of the Lost City is not only a haven of luxury but also a treasure trove of art and culture.

Marvel at the awe-inspiring collection of African art displayed throughout the palace's public spaces. The Valley of the Waves Art Gallery showcases magnificent sculptures and paintings by renowned local and international artists. Delve into the rich heritage of South Africa at the Mmabatho Museum of Art, which houses a captivating collection of historical artifacts and contemporary works.

Unforgettable Experiences for Every Traveler

Whether you seek an indulgent escape, an adventure-filled holiday, or a cultural immersion, The Palace of the Lost City caters to the desires of every traveler.

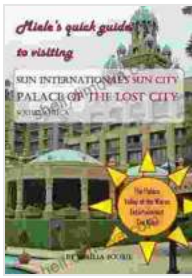

For families, the palace offers a dedicated Kids' Club, where little ones can engage in supervised activities and make new friends. Couples can celebrate their love in the romantic ambiance of the Honeymoon Suite, complete with a private plunge pool and breathtaking views. Business travelers will find state-of-the-art conference facilities and exceptional catering services.
